November 2019

Special Programs

Dia De Los Muertos family program
Saturday, Nov 2nd, 2pm
Film Screening starts at 4pm
Come celebrate the Day of the Dead with the Lopez Community. Nikyta Palmisani will facilitate a paper flower making workshop using old pages from discarded books. We will add them to the public ofrenda (or ancestor altar) where Lopezians are encouraged to bring photos of their ancestors, framed or unframed, that can be left on this public space for a week or longer. Then stay for a showing of the Disney animated film “Coco” (rated PG).

Beginner Knitting Circle
Wed., Nov 13th, 6pm by the fireside
An open knitting circle for all, with tips for beginners, hosted by local knitter Kelli Carrier.

Movie Nights every Wednesday at 6pm
November theme: Musicians and Music
November 6: Rocket Man
November 13: Yesterday
November 20: TED talks on music
November 27: Marianne & Leonard Cohen: Songs of Love

QiGong
Thursday mornings at 9am
In the Community Room
Join local Qi-Gong instructor Claudia Elwell for a morning meditative movement course. Drop ins welcome.

Know Your Neighbor Travel Stories: From Antarctica to Haida Gwaii
Thurs., Nov 14th, 4:30pm
Join local photographers and ecologists Gene Helfman and Judy Meyer for a slideshow presentation of their photographs and experiences traveling from one edge of the world to another: Antarctica to Haida Gwaii, and places in between.

Art in the Library Opening Reception:
Erica Nordean and Robert Wood
Fri., Nov 15th, 4pm
Erica Nordean's paintings of haunting landscapes and abstract representations of horses will be on the library walls, and Robert Woods colorful "Left Luggage of Gnome Island" sculptures will be in the display cabinets.

Ongoing Programs

Beginning Genealogy Class
Tues., Nov 5th, 11am - 1pm
Join other genealogy enthusiasts to learn the basics of researching your ancestry. Bring your laptop for assistance with the library's ancestry.com tool.

Tech Made Simple
Fri., Nov 8th, 10:30am - 12:30pm
Get back to basics with using the internet. Ask Gene Nery any questions you have about getting and being online.

Literary Salon
Tues., Nov 19th, 7pm
Bring what you're reading, or a book you want to discuss with other readers by the library fireside.

Kids' Programs

Songs & Stories Time
Wednesdays at 4pm
In the Community Room
Join librarian Ingrid for stories, songs, and movement! Geared towards toddlers and preschoolers and their caregivers. Older siblings are welcome too.
