

Royalty #1

Anne of A Thousand Days and Mary, Queen of Scots - Drama - Both movies on this DVD. Richard Burton, Genevieve Gujold, Iren Papas, Anthony Quayle in Anne of the Thousand Days. Starring in Mary, Queen of Scots is Vanessa Redgrave, Glenda Jackson, Patrick McGoohan, Timothy Dalton, Nigel Davenport. Two movies of British royalty and the political dramas surrounding them.

Edward and Mrs. Simpson – Drama – True story of British King who gave up his empire for the woman he loved.

Empire - Drama - Cast: Santiago Cabrera, Vincent Regan, Emily Blunt, James Frain, Jonathan Cake. "Mini-series about Octavius and Marc Anthony's struggle to control ancient Rome following Julius Caesar's assassination." - lib. website. TV14. Subtitles for the deaf and hard of hearing (SDH).

{The} Hollow Crown: Henry V - Drama - Tom Hiddleston, Geraldine Chaplin, Paul Freeman, Tom Georgeson, Richard Griffiths, Paterson Joseph, James Laurenson, Anton Lesser, Paul Ritter, Malcolm Sinclair, Owen Teale, Melanie Thierry, Lambert Wilson, Julie Walters, John Hurt. "The newly crowned King of England, Henry V, (Tom Hiddleston) is persuaded by his courtiers including Exeter (Anton Lesser) and York (Paterson Joseph), that he also has a rightful claim to lands in France. The chorus (John Hurt) tells of England's preparations for war and Henry's army sails for France. After Exeter's diplomacy is rebuffed by the French King (Lambert Wilson) Henry lays siege to and captures the town of Harfleur. The French now take Henry's claims seriously and challenge the English army to battle at Agincourt"-- Container.

King Tut: Secrets Revealed - 930.1 ANC - New information and perspectives on the young Egyptian King's life and death.

King Lear - Drama - Ian Holm, Barbara Flynn, Amanda Redman, Timothy West, Paul Rhys, Finbar Lynch, David Burke, Victoria Hamilton. "Lear, King of Britain, has three daughters: Goneril, Regan and Cordelia. Intending to divide his kingdom among his daughters according to their affection for him, he asks them to say which loves him most. Goneril and Regan profess their extreme affection, and each receives one-third of the kingdom. Cordelia, disgusted with their hollow flattery, says she loves him according to her duty, no more or less. Infuriated with this reply, Lear divides her portion between Goneril and Regan. Eventually, the two daughters reveal their true heartlessness and a tragic chain of events are set into motion." -- Container.

Richard III - Classics - Cedric Hardwicke, Nicholas Hannen, Laurence Olivier, Ralph Richardson, John Gielgud, Mary Kerridge, Paul Huson, Claire Bloom. "Begins by recapitulating the final scene of Henry IV, Part III with Edward IV being crowned king. In the background of the celebration, Richard jealously views the proceedings. Soon afterwards, Edward IV is murdered, drowned in a vat of wine. Richard becomes king and, after proceeding with a succession of intrigues and duplicities, he finds his kingdom in dire peril, set upon by Henry Tudor and mustering a final defense for his realm at the Battle of Bosworth. An immortal tale of lust, murder, treachery and the ruthless pursuit of power.” Golden Globe winner.

A} Royal Night Out - Comedy - Sarah Gadon, Bel Powley, Emily Watson, Rupert Everett, Jack Laskey, Jack Gordon. “Inspired by true events, this charming romantic comedy recounts the glorious celebration of the end of World War II in Europe; and the singular evening when Princess Elizabeth and Princess Margaret leave the confines of Buckingham Palace to join the festivities, while giving their chaperones the slip.” Rating “PG-13” for some sexual content and brief drug elements

{The} Tudors - TV Series - Jonathan Rhys Meyers, Sam Neill, Callum Blue, Henry Cavell, Henry Czerny, Natalie Dormer, Maria Doyle Kennedy, Nick Dunning, James Frain, Jeremy Northam. Drama of the British royal Tudor Family. Jonathan Rhys Meyers plays King Henry 8th. Four seasons look at the history of royalty, heirs, and what can happen if there aren’t any. Extra viewing includes “Californication”.

{The} White Queen - Drama - Juliet Aubrey, Aneurin Barnard, Rebecca Ferguson, James Frain, Rupert Graves, Caroline Goodall, Amanda Hall, Max Irons, Ben Lamb, Michael Maloney, Faye Marsay, Tom McKay, Janet McTeer, David Oakes, Eleanor Tomlinson, Shaun Dooley, Andrew Gower, Michael Jenn, Ashley Charles, Michael Marcus, Freya Manor. Three women during the turbulent English history use every maneuver they can to get on the English throne. This includes lust, murder, betrayal, and more.